These so-called leaders are the worst we have to offer. Why be surprised? Lynch told his crew to turn their backs on the Mayor, an act of indiscipline and defiance that ought to have had them written up. Meanwhile, people like Mullins defend every abuse his pals engage in. Shame!

This is not good. We need children to be able to get vaccinated. Otherwise, we may very well overwhelm our hospitals with cases of preventable illnesses while still trying to recover from COVID-19, which we don't have a vaccine for yet.

All police deployment should be equitably distributed, by population density.

Traditionally low crime neighborhoods that hardly ever see a cop around would certainly appreciate it.

It's going to take hard work & thoughtful planning, but we need to find a way to allow people to cool off at city beaches and to get to and from waterfront destinations safely. NYers have done an amazing job coming together to flatten the curve and stop the spread so far. 2/3

This new reality is confusing and unsettling for adults to grasp—so imagine how challenging it must be for kids to contextualize and make sense of it all.

What an awesome idea, to make a children's book to help 😍 #NYCHeroes

As Muslims across the city and world mark the end of Ramadan, I'm wishing you a joyous and safe Eid! The generosity from the NYC Muslim community in this challenging time has been nothing short of awe-inspiring. Thank you for making our city such a beautiful place. #EidMubarak

For too long, placards have dictated how New Yorkers use what limited street space they have. Today, the @NYCCouncil has the opportunity to change that by passing a package of bills to end the corruptive practice of placard abuse.

Reminder! I know it's a little nicer out today, so we might have more New Yorkers out and about.

Still, please refrain from congregating in large crowds in our parks, streets, etc. The more diligently we keep this up, the better off we'll be.

My heartfelt condolences go out to the loved ones of Nelson Rivera and his entire @TWULocal100 family.

Nelson's commitment to his work and his community show just how perfectly he embodied the true spirit of NYC. He will be sorely missed. twulocal100.org/story/twu-loca …

ATTN District 3! I know many of us are eager to get outside for some fresh air & sunshine, but it's crucial that NYers wear a mask or a face covering when out in public & in situations where social distancing cannot be maintained 😷

So, my office is distributing masks! ⬇️

"Recently, federal funds released to help states respond to the COVID-19 crisis followed a formula that allocated $379,000 per virus case to Nebraska, versus just $12,000 per case to New York."

NY is the epicenter of this crisis. This makes no sense.

Thank you, Corey. It occurs to me that the Council can play a role here by reconsidering the budget request for the Strategic Response Group. If SRG has so little to do that it is deployed against the most minor traffic offense on the books, maybe it isn't needed?

Thank you, Corey. It occurs to me that the Council can play a role here by reconsidering the budget request for the Strategic Response Group. If SRG has so little to do that it is deployed against the most minor traffic offense on the books, maybe it isn't needed?

On #MemorialDay, we call to mind the bravery of our military heroes who sacrificed their lives serving our country. While we might not be able to have the parades we'd normally have to honor them, we carry that same spirit of gratitude just as much in our hearts—today and always.

Access to NYC beaches isn't just a summer fun issue—it's an equity issue and a public health issue.

NYers who are wealthy enough to travel outside of the city will be able to get to a beach. But those who can't do that? They deserve beach access too.

Such good news. @BAM_Brooklyn's annual DanceAfrica event is still on—virtually! And for a whole month! There will be online dance classes, past performance streams, and interviews, + a virtual bazaar.

In other words, you don't want to miss this.

FDNY EMS workers risk their safety to save lives every day. These workers are predominantly people of color and there are more women in their ranks than any other uniformed service. Yet they're paid far less than their mostly white, male FDNY firefighter colleagues. 1/

It's long past time to repeal 50-a.

I have been saying this for years, and it's time to get it done. Thank you Council Member @DRichards13 for being a leader on this issue.

There are more protests today.

It's important that we know: What is the NYPD doing to ensure that what happened last night doesn't happen again?

What de-escalation tactics should we expect to see? What are the guidelines on avoiding use of force whenever possible?

In New York State, we wouldn't even be able to know this information.

Repeal 50-a NOW.

Minneapolis officer Derek Chauvin, who knelt on George Floyd's neck, has had 17 complaints against him filed over the years.

All but one were closed without discipline, per records.

I sent a letter w/ CMs @Dromm25 & @Vanessalgibson asking that the Mayor identify savings in agencies to address our $9B budget gap. The proposed 32% cut from @NYCYouth while NYPD's is <1% is completely unfair & does not represent our values.

We urge non-violence for protestors. Always.

But we demand better from the NYPD. Too many instances of escalation rather than de-escalation. Too much force.

I am heartbroken for New York City right now. Our city deserves better.

Yes. Every word of this from my friend & colleague @DRichards13.

The outrage we are seeing did not come out of nowhere. It comes after years of frustrating, painstaking work in the fight for justice.

Protests against police brutality must not be met with more police brutality.

> Donovan Richards @DRichards13

Inexcusable. My God. A police officer who tear gases a civilian whose hands are up does a dishonor to his colleagues and his city and needs to be brought to justice.

Today @RitchieTorres and I told the de Blasio Administration that we need an independent investigation of the NYPD's mishandling of these protests.

The Law Department or any other agency controlled by the Mayor should not be involved.

This unrest on our streets will not end if new instances of police brutality happen each night. The mayor & NYPD need to rethink their entire strategy immediately.

And people looting & instigating violence, even when urged not to do by fellow protestors, aren't helping either.

New Yorkers are hurting.

Black Americans are hurting.

I'm here to listen and support, and was glad to run into my friend @JumaaneWilliams at the Barclays Center.

We marched, chanted and rallied together peacefully.

Throughout our nation's history, we have been made better by the voices and protest of Black leaders—and #Pride is no different.

The first Pride was a protest against police brutality towards LGBTQ people, spearheaded by Marsha P. Johnson, a Black trans woman, and Sylvia Rivera.

As we enter #PRIDE2020🏳️‍🌈, let's remember that in fighting for LGBTQ people, the fight must be just as much for Black lives. We might not be able to march the way we normally would, but we can continue to "march" in spirit & action in the name of equality for all.

Happy Pride, NYC.

Our city is no stranger to this pain—the pain of grieving a Black man killed by police, his last words being "I can't breathe."

It's long past time to criminalize the use of a chokehold & hold the police accountable with transparent disciplinary actions.

Justice could never come fast enough for the families of Eric Garner, George Floyd, & the many who know that pain all too well. But criminalizing the use of a chokehold in arrests & ensuring NYPD is held accountable with transparency is certainly a start.

Let's get it done.

Good. But it shouldn't take the entire nation expressing rightful outrage to achieve this, the bare minimum of justice.

This can't be where it ends. There's much, much more to do.

I strongly condemn the unnerving violence we saw from the NYPD last night. The protestors were nonviolent. There was no reason to instigate.

We need our police leadership to do better. We need and deserve a compassionate approach, and I hope the NYPD will rise to that demand.

Black people in America have been owed justice for centuries. The protests and outrage are more than rightfully theirs to express, and all those joining in have a crucial role to play as allies.

There is no reason for the NYPD to meet this movement with violence.

Cities and communities across the country are ending their curfews today. NYC should follow suit.

The curfews are doing more harm than good, and the protests won't stop until justice is served.

Unacceptable. The NYPD should not be handling press passes. It should be a neutral agency w/ limited political influence. The Council is willing to legislate, but the Mayor should quickly issue an executive order moving authority out of the PD and eliminating barriers to access.

Corey! Please include press outlets and orgs like @TheNYPPA & @NYPressClub in any changes.

Restoring "Is entitled to cross police and fire lines wherever formed" which had been on the front of NYC press cards for nearly 100 years but removed by the NYPD in 2010 is a big must(1/3)

Today marks a year since the death of Layleen Polanco, an Afro-Latinx transgender woman who died while in solitary confinement at Rikers.

Her death is a travesty, and we must honor her life by continuing to fight against the policies that caused it. We must #HALTSolitary now.

As if there were still any doubts. The nature of institutionalized racism is such that when crisis hits, while we're all impacted, not everyone is impacted equally. Any recovery plan must address the inequities at play, and that's what we intend to do.

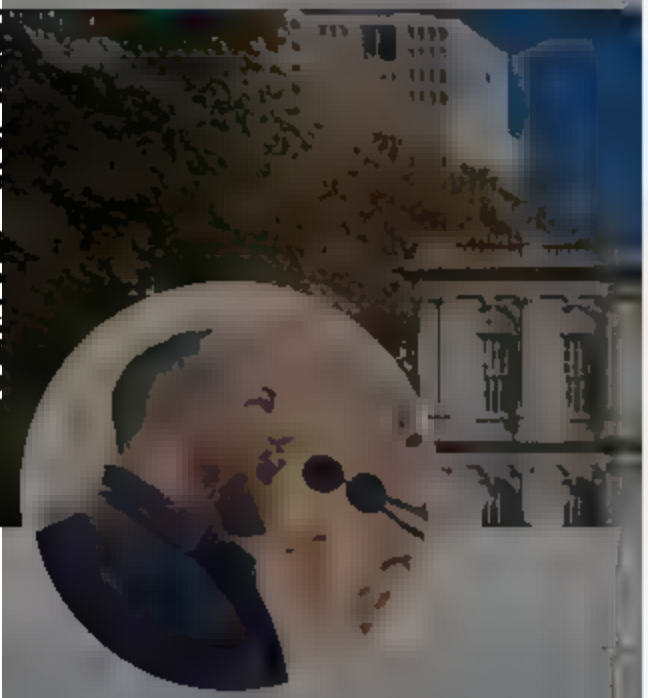
Today is the 1st day of #BlackHistoryMonth, and black history is inextricable from NY history. I wanted to share this poem from the inimitable Langston Hughes, who would be 117 years old today. While we celebrate history, we look ahead to the ongoing fight for racial equality.

I, too, sing America.

I am the darker brother.
They send me to eat in the kitchen
When company comes,
But I laugh,
And eat well,
And grow strong.

Tomorrow,
I'll be at the table
When company comes.
Nobody'll dare
Say to me,
"Eat in the kitchen,"
Then.



Besides,
They'll see how beautiful I am
And be ashamed—

In 1993, both Mayor Dinkins & Speaker Vallone realized that to achieve any meaningful reform, they had to work together in crafting a solution to bring to Albany. If the Mayor is truly serious about property tax reform, he will engage the Council as a full partner in this effort.

CITY HALL WHITEBOARD

Mayor says property tax commission will be announced by May

By DAVID GIAMBUSSO

Mayor Bill de Blasio said today that he would name a commission to study property tax reform by the end of April.

New York City's lopsided property tax system has faced criticism for decades, but city leaders have done little to address it. Some types of residential properties have an unduly higher burden than others and homes of equal value pay vastly different amounts.

The mayor has long said he wants to change the system. During his weekly appearance on WNYC's "The Brian Lehrer Show," de Blasio said he would name a commission to study property taxes and make recommendations to City Hall by Being progressive means we should be careful with, and think long-term about, taxpayers' money.

The @NYCCouncil wants to put away more money in City reserves for a rainy day, because the downpour will inevitably come.

The @NYCMayor has said he wants New York to be the fairest major city in the country and has proclaimed himself a leader on income inequality.

It's time to make good on those words, and make the turnstile the gateway, instead of the barrier, to progress.

Black people in America are 10x more likely to be killed by gun homicide than white people, another glaring example of a dire racial inequity.

Whether it's COVID-19, police brutality, maternal mortality, or gun violence, the injustice is painfully clear—and it's on us to end it.

While it was initially necessary to close NYC playgrounds to stop the coronavirus from spreading, with so many communities lacking outdoor space + reopening phases in full swing, we need to reopen playgrounds with necessary precautions (e.g., regular cleanings, wearing masks).

It's a sad fact that many communities don't have access to major parks and green space, which only exacerbates the divide between the haves and have nots in NYC.

All kids need places to play and get some fresh air. It's time to open our playgrounds.

5 years ago today, a brutal, white supremacist massacre took 9 precious lives—known as the #Charleston9—from the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The police that took murderer Dylann Roof into custody handled him with kid gloves.

This is why we say #BlackLivesMatter.

There is no justice without transparency, and we certainly need more transparency from the NYPD about their use of surveillance technology. One of the police reform bills the @NYCCouncil will vote on today can make that happen thanks to CM @Vanessalgibson.

Happy Emancipation Day!

Just a few facts:The US was 3rd to last in the Americas to abolish slavery.

The Emancipation Proclamation came abt partially because enslaved people were self-liberating by the thousands. Don't let them tell you we just waited to be free.

In fact, the idea for the proclamation came because enslaved people emancipated themselves and ran away to Fort Monroe at Point Comfort, the very place where the first Africans were sold in Virginia.

Tomorrow will be a primary like we've never seen before in many ways, including challenges in vote counting.

But even in these circumstances, the BOE must work efficiently & communicate w/us on when to expect complete results.

I hope everyone gets out &makes their voice heard!

We have demagogues in the City Council who want to rip down statues of Thomas Jefferson who wrote the Declaration of Independence. And hate speech from Shaun King of Daily News who wants to rip down Jesus Christ. We must vote against elected officials who stand against religion.

Let's be clear: We (lawmakers, non-Black New Yorkers, etc.) can't just come for the celebration and drop the ball with the movement.

It's on us to keep this momentum going. It's on us to demand change in our laws and transform our culture.

Let's make this clear — no one should be evicted during a pandemic.

Whether housing courts reopen virtually or in person, we must keep New Yorkers in their homes and assist smaller landlords in making up their lost revenue.

Glad to see the City is complying with our subpoena for this report. Next we need to know what the Mayor's office knew and when they knew it. The drafts of this report and emails that went to the Mayor are due on June 26.

Commissioner Oxiris Barbot @NYCHealthCommr

More New Yorkers' deaths are due to law enforcement than are captured by our official surveillance measures. @nycHealthy has been reviewing this process & found official counts are flawed. This is a draft, but we believe in transparency & accountability.

Happy five years of Obergefell v. Hodges ❤️ I'll never forget that day and the hope it brought to so many of us. Here's to continuing the fight for equality for all. #loveislove🌈

No union is more profound than marriage, for it embod ies the highest ideals of love, fidelity devotion, sacrifice and fam y. In form ng a marital union two people be come something greater than once they were. As some of the petitioners in these cases demonstrate marriage embodies a love that may endure even past death. It would misunderstand these men and women to say they disrespect the idea of marriage. Their plea is that they do respect it respect it so deeply that they seek to find its fulfillment for themselves. Their hope is not to be con demned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civiliza tion's oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right.

The judgment of the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit is reversed.

It is so ordered.

The Mayor and I started this process FAR apart on shrinking the NYPD's budget and footprint and bringing transformational change to the department.

The Council fought hard to get where we are, but I know this is just a starting point, not an ending point. We need to go farther.

The plan outlined by the Mayor and Chancellor to reopen schools this September does little to alleviate parents' concerns about child care for students when they are not physically in school.

Chilling and completely unacceptable. Our city has a long legacy of structural racism, and as we resoundingly grapple with it, we must reject this hate. Black Lives Matter, and this racism is repugnant.

New York City is one of the major engines for the entire U.S. economy. A nationwide comeback can't happen without a comeback for New York, but we won't get our economy back up to speed without funding for our mass transit.

We need federal support. Now.

NYC, we have a tropical storm coming within the next few hours—showers, thunderstorms, heavy rain, and gusty winds (could be anywhere from 39-57 mph).

As of right now, the areas that will be most impacted include Coney Island, Bay Ridge, and Flatbush.

Stay safe, stay inside!

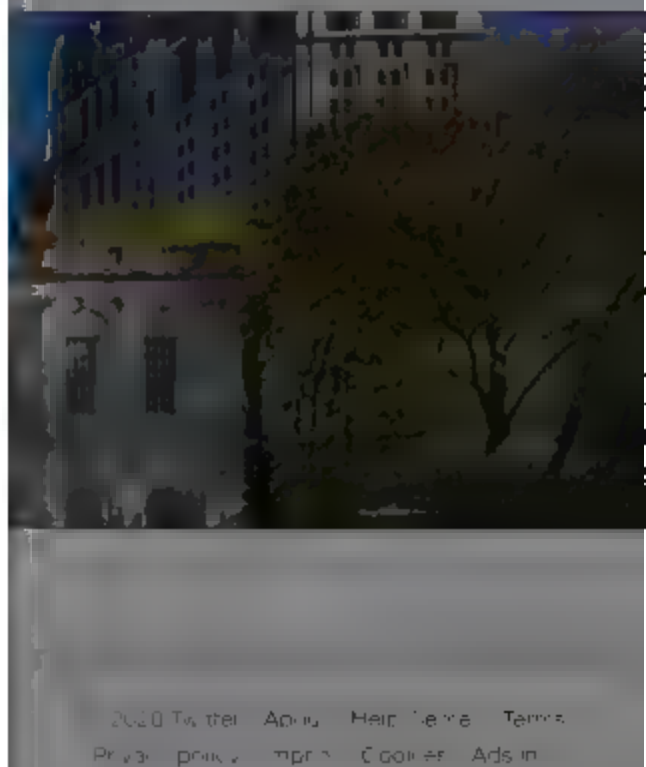
Federal enhanced unemployment benefits end in 11 days, but the economic ramifications of this crisis are far from over.



Call your federal representatives and tell them to act now. This is a matter of survival for millions of New York families.

The Brooklyn Bridge is an NYC icon that is due for a reimagining. While we consider long term solutions, the city should act now to give bikes and pedestrians more space right away, and that's true for other East River bridges too.

If we let traffic continue to snarl our streets while letting mass transit and biking infrastructure flounder, we will do grave damage to both our economy and our environment.

We must adapt and reimagine how people get around our city.

We should consider outdoor learning options for students as we are planning for September. We need to get creative and approach the issue of opening schools through an equity lens, helping as many NYC students as possible learn in person.

The Trump admin failed in its attempt to add a citizenship question to the #2020Census, but it's still trying to exclude immigrants from Congressional apportionment counts. This is an immoral attack on immigrants and on NY —and it's unconstitutional.

These additional subway cops were unnecessary when they were first proposed. Given the current budget crisis the MTA is facing, adding them would be an indefensible use of funding. This idea should be scrapped.

Subways are not properly functioning unless it is safe for riders. Subway crime has risen. We need a plan to make it safe. I don't care if it's more or less cops, as long as there is an effective plan for safety.

Like Council Member @JustinBrannan said, extreme heat is an issue of racial and economic justice. The bill the @NYCCouncil passed yesterday to ensure the consistent study and reporting of the impacts of extreme heat on New Yorkers makes that a priority.

The @NYCCouncil and I (as prime sponsor) passed INTRO 1609, which legally restructures the NYC Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) as the Department of Consumer and Worker Protection (DCWP). Under the Admin Code (all local laws), NYC will have its own labor department.

Absolutely reprehensible. Directing violence and hate at women elected leaders—especially women of color—has horrific ramifications. It dehumanizes, diminishes, and demeans. It's part of a much larger cultural problem we still haven't fixed.

We cannot and will not tolerate it.

Women's Caucus @WomensCaucusNYC

This week, a member of the Women's Caucus received a piece of mail that contained violent, misogynistic threats & racial slurs. This kind of intimidation is unacceptable. Members of the Women's Caucus continue to condemn this behavior directed at women

Last night saw several more victims of gun violence across the city, including a 21-year-old man in my district. My thoughts are with all the victims. The recent violence in our city is unacceptable. We must work together to combat violence and keep communities safe.

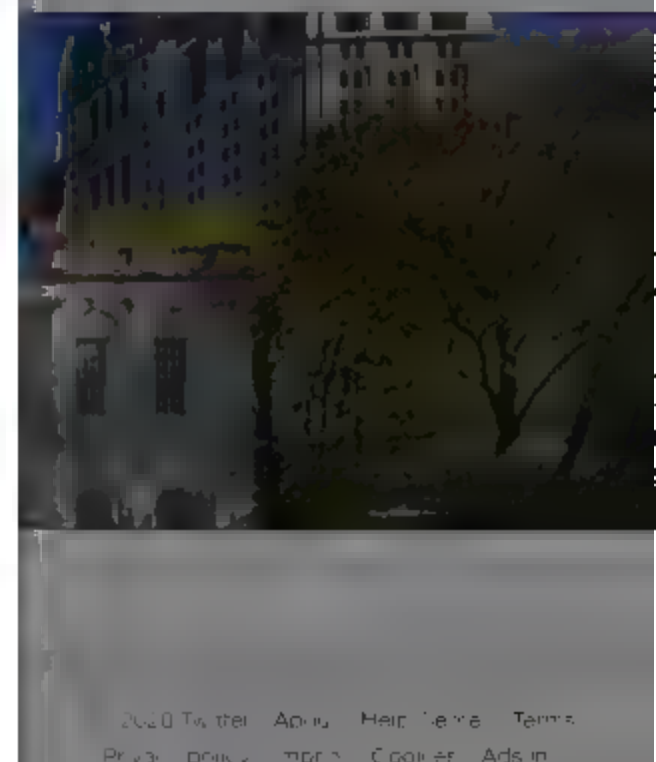
Hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers are still without power and Con Edison is saying full restoration might take days. This is unacceptable.



In past emergencies, ConEd has hired support from other utility companies. They need to do the same now.

Speeding up the census response timeline will greatly increase the risk of an undercount in cities with historically undercounted populations like NYC.

This could rob New York and other diverse states of the representation and resources we deserve.

This type of action only worsens relationships between the community and the NYPD. It's an attempt to intimidate a leader of a movement addressing systemic racism and police brutality. My office has spoken to the NYPD about this incident & we'll keep following up to get answers.

We must delay in-person schooling until appropriate safety measures are not just talked about, but actually implemented. We all need to work together to keep teachers, students, and families safe this school year. Proud to join @UFT in calling for real school safety today.

Now would be a great time to fill out the census if you haven't already. We can never afford an undercount, but especially not this time around.

A risk of contracting or spreading COVID-19 is a valid reason to request an absentee ballot. Just check the box for "temporary illness" on your absentee ballot application

@BOENYC will begin mailing out ballots on September 18th. 2/

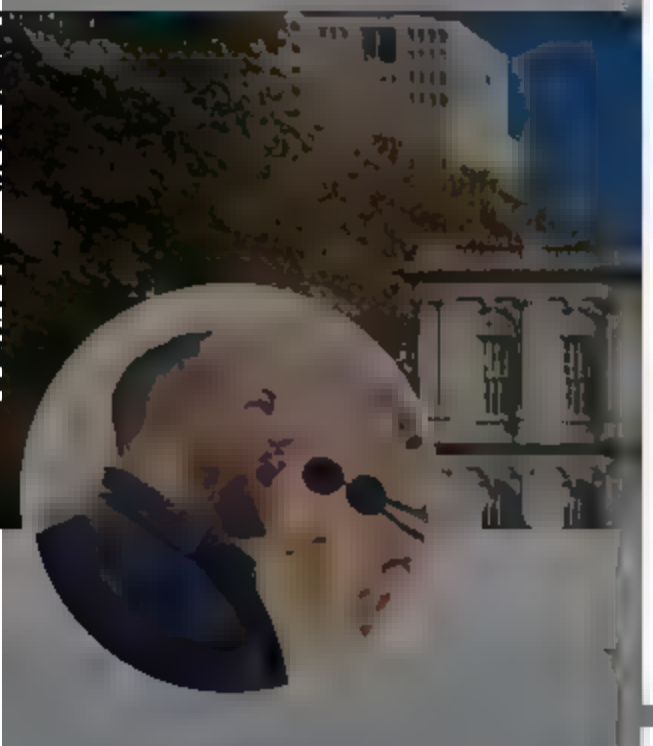
NYC Council @NYCCouncil 59s



Once you receive your ballot, send it back as soon as you can - and don't forget to sign the envelope!

You can also drop off your absentee ballot IN PERSON at your local BOE office or at your poll site during Early Voting and on Election Day. 3/

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

NYC's economy powers our nation, but instead of trying to help us Donald Trump is actively trying to harm his hometown.

He needs to stop his blustering and provide the federal aid that we need to make it through the public health and economic crises our nation is facing.

Happy #LaborDay NYC! It's always great to celebrate the achievements of workers in our country. While I know we normally do so with parades and barbecues, this year will of course be different. Please stay safe and avoid congregating in large crowds. Enjoy the day!

West Nile has been detected for the first time this season in Staten Island, Brooklyn, and Queens. Thankfully no cases have been reported in humans. Protect yourself by wearing insect repellent covering your arms and legs. And report standing water to 311.

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

The federal government must serve the people of this country—including New Yorkers. Cutting funding to New York City, one of the nation's most vital economic engines, is dumb as it is cruel. We must fight this misguided attack from the Trump administration.

Outdoor dining has been one of the big successes of the past few months. We just announced we're hearing a bill at the Council to make it permanent.

The bill would also allow restaurants to use heat lamps outside—something they can't do right now.

My statement on Samaritan's Purse:

It is time for Samaritan's Purse to leave NYC. This group, led by the notoriously bigoted, hate-spewing Franklin Graham, came at a time when our city couldn't in good conscience turn away any offer of help. That time has passed. 1/

This type of action only worsens relationships between the community and the NYPD. It's an attempt to intimidate a leader of a movement addressing systemic racism and police brutality. My office has spoken to the NYPD about this incident & we'll keep following up to get answers.

This type of action only worsens relationships between the community and the NYPD. It's an attempt to intimidate a leader of a movement addressing systemic racism and police brutality. My office has spoken to the NYPD about this incident & we'll keep following up to get answers.

What happened last night in the Village was unacceptable. The right to protest is sacrosanct. Or at least it should be. We keep seeing incidents that show this right being disregarded. This is unacceptable and must end.

Make no mistake, advocates and restaurant owners pushed hard for this. We have them to thank for this much needed progress, and I look forward to continuing our work together to make sure our city's restaurants survive this challenging time.

Proud to announce open streets legislation with @CMCarlinaRivera. New Yorkers don't have the street space they need to maintain proper social distancing, which we know is essential in this public health crisis. 1/3

I couldn't agree more. The @NYCCouncil won't stop leading on this and pushing to reimagine our streets in ways that better serve our small businesses and all New Yorkers.

And yet the school permits for outdoor learning end in November. Will you commit to leading on that issue as well?

Mount Sinai must sever its relationship with Samaritan's Purse. Its leader calls the LGBTQ community "detestable" and "immoral." He says being gay is "an affront to God," and refers to gay Christians as "the enemy." 5/

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

Brooklyn voters should check the name and address on their inner envelope and, if it isn't theirs, hold onto the ballot but not use it. We will update you when @BOENYC releases their plan for how to fix this serious issue.

It is time for Samaritan's Purse to leave NYC. This group, led by the notoriously bigoted, hate-spewing Franklin Graham, came at a time when our city couldn't in good conscience turn away any offer of help. That time has passed. 1/

I'm aware that our battle against COVID-19 is still ongoing, and that our health care system—and the amazing workers who have been the heroes of this unprecedented time in our history—still needs support. 3/

The @NYCCouncil is committed to supporting those workers and protecting our city's public health. But as a city that values diversity and compassion for all, we can't continue allowing a group with their track record to remain here when we're past the point they're needed. 4/

Mount Sinai must sever its relationship with Samaritan's Purse. Its leader calls the LGBTQ community "detestable" and "immoral." He says being gay is "an affront to God," and refers to gay Christians as "the enemy." 5/

Samaritan's Purse requires its volunteers to agree to a written affirmation "that marriage is exclusively the union of one genetic male and one genetic female."

NYC is the proud birthplace of the gay liberation movement in this country, and we reject this horrifying anti-LGBTQ hatred and violence. My thoughts are with Massiah Berkley's family, and I thank @QueensDAKatz for her office's swift pursuit of justice.

Because many domestic violence survivors are stuck in homes with their abusers and with less access to the support/services they'd normally have, DV call centers have become even more important.

No one should suffer alone.

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

Those experiencing DV found themselves quarantined with their abusers, and therefore less able to access or completely cut off from the resources and support they need to get help. The uptick in DV cases is undeniable, and the support survivors need only grows.

All Brooklyn absentee voters should check the name and address on their inner envelope. If any of the info is incorrect, DON'T USE that ballot or envelope. You will get your new ballot package in the mail automatically (no need to make a new request). Use that instead.

Mount Sinai must sever its relationship with Samaritan's Purse. Its leader calls the LGBTQ community "detestable" and "immoral." He says being gay is "an affront to God," and refers to gay Christians as "the enemy." 5/

Samaritan's Purse requires its volunteers to agree to a written affirmation "that marriage is exclusively the union of one genetic male and one genetic female."

Hate has no place in our beautiful city. 6/6

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

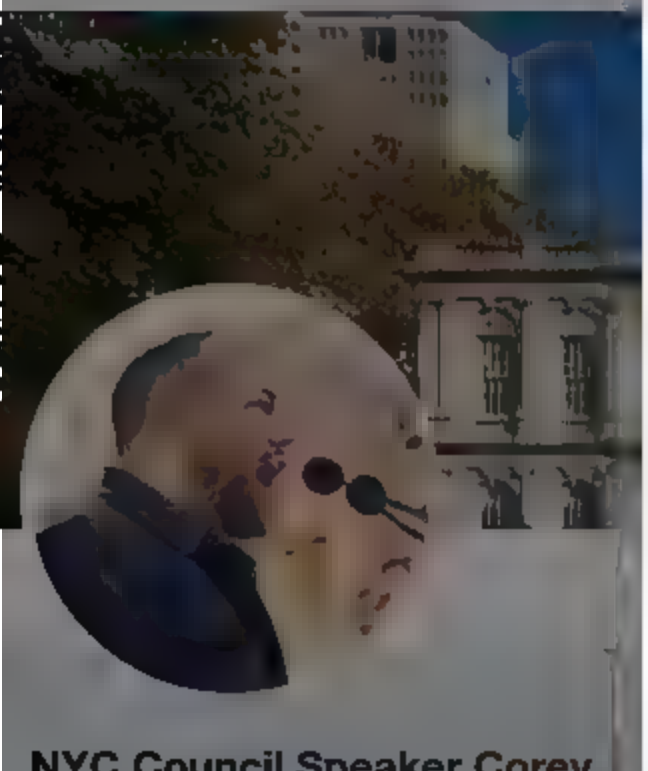
Of the 31 known killings of trans and GNC people in the US in 2020 so far, 26 were Black or Latinx.

This has been the deadliest year for trans and GNC folks, especially trans women of color, in the US on record—and it's only October.



This is an epidemic.

I'm so sad to hear of Cecil's passing. He was instrumental in the @NYCCouncil's climate agenda, always making sure that environmental justice was top of mind in our work together.

What a legacy to leave behind. Our hearts go out to all his loved ones.

My op-ed calling for the legalization of marijuana in @eldiariony. Criminalizing marijuana has been as misguided as prohibition was in the 1920s.

Ha llegado el momento de que Nueva York entre en el siglo XXI y legalice la marihuana.

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

It is time for Samaritan's Purse to leave NYC. This group, led by the notoriously bigoted, hate-spewing Franklin Graham, came at a time when our city couldn't in good conscience turn away any offer of help. That time has passed. 1/

Mount Sinai must sever its relationship with Samaritan's Purse. Its leader calls the LGBTQ community "detestable" and "immoral." He says being gay is "an affront to God," and refers to gay Christians as "the enemy." 5/

Today we're having a hearing to examine parks equity. Our research shows that areas hardest hit by COVID also have the least amount of greenspace. Past efforts to help bring more greenspace to NYC have too often excluded lower income communities.

Bike shops should be deemed essential services and allowed to stay open during the #coronavirus crisis. Our delivery workers will need them, as will essential workers who choose to commute by bicycle.

Sadly, requiring those who want to help to sign a faith-based agreement is just one part of this org's long history of hate.

It's deplorable. We're a city that embraces diversity. I demand that Samaritan's Purse drop this unacceptable requirement as we fight #COVID19. 2/2

Hard to believe it was 8 years ago today that Hurricane Sandy hit NYC. So many impacts remain, speaking to a dire need for environmental protections to prevent more devastation with the next superstorm.

Sandy changed us as a city. That experience must inform how we move forward.

We must keep in mind that cashless businesses inherently discriminate against those who don't have access to sufficient banking services. In a pandemic that has already exacerbated so many inequities, we can't let this be another one.

Incredibly disturbing videos in this thread. People have a right to protest, and journalists must never be threatened with arrest for doing their job. We need de-escalation at times like this.

Jake Offenhartz @angeloott

Big group of protesters are kettled on 5th Ave, then arrested for standing in the street. Crowd is chanting "let us disperse," but officers keeping coming. Conservatives 250 cops here for a group probably half that size

Thrilled to see two proposals from my Growing Food Equity report going into effect to:

➡️ extend SNAP to CUNY and SUNY students
➡️ streamline SNAP application for older and disabled individuals

Thanks to my state government colleagues for bringing this across the finish line!

Our COVID indicators are going up in New York City. We absolutely cannot allow that to continue.

PLEASE wear a mask.
PLEASE get tested monthly.
PLEASE avoid gatherings without social distancing and other necessary precautions, especially indoors.
PLEASE take this seriously.

This budget proposal is devastating. The MTA has been crippled by this pandemic and the federal government has failed to step up.

If we want our city—a major economic engine nationwide—to recover from this pandemic, we need an MTA stimulus. Now.

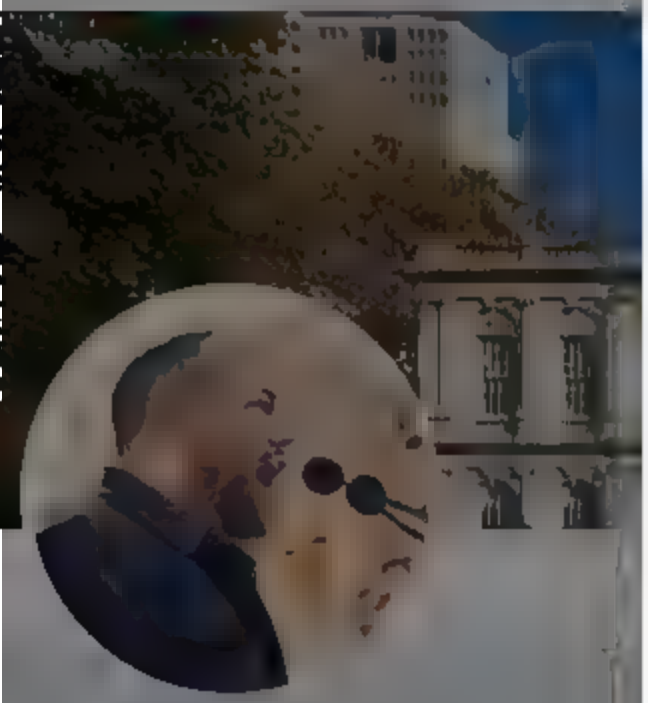
Ending the HIV/AIDS epidemic means
✅ support and continued care for those who need it
✅ PrEP and PEP being affordable and accessible to all



We're so close to ending this, but it's going to take us fighting even harder to cross the finish line.

Let's do it. #WorldAIDSDay

Looking forward to passing these resolutions at Thursday's Stated. #WalkingWhileTrans is not a crime, and the @NYCCouncil is calling on state lawmakers to make sure our state penal code reflects that truth.

Details are still emerging about what happened last night outside the Metropolitan Republican Club but initial reports and videos are disgusting and horrifying. New York City will not tolerate this kind of hate. Hate is not welcome here.

Why all of this matters. Our lack of planning essentially forces communities into reactionary and defensive positions, which makes for a challenging land use review process that often fails to invest in communities or support equitable growth to solve our housing crisis. 4/

I love doing our toy drive with @UFOA854 and @HolyApostlesNYC. The generosity they show every year is such a beautiful reminder of the joy we can bring to each other in this season, even in challenging times.

The media could not be played.

The fact that the information wasn't publicly available in the first place is reason for concern. At least now the @NYCCouncil be able to perform more thorough oversight to ensure equity in our public school students' remote learning experiences.

Glad the courts have upheld our 2018 Waste Equity law, which stops communities from being overburdened by waste transfer stations.

This is one of our proudest achievements. It's already reduced the amount of trash coming into our hardest hit communities.

We owe the frontline and essential workers of New York City all our thanks. You all really kept things going when it seemed impossible.

Thank you, thank you, thank you. Happy holidays everyone.

NYC Council @NYCCouncil
In a year that threw every challenge our way – and seemingly endless devastation with it – we owe a debt of gratitude to the New Yorkers who kept our city going in 2020, especially as they continue to get us through these difficult times.

Too many New Yorkers were lost to traffic violence this year, and much work remains to achieve Vision Zero. But we did make some progress toward a safe and livable streetscape, and the @NYCCouncil will keep up the fight next year. 1/

It's finally here, the last day of 2020—and what a challenging year it's been.

We know the work is just beginning to recover NYC, and I'm so grateful to go into 2021 with my @NYCCouncil colleagues to continue fighting for New Yorkers through what will be a long road to recovery.

Howard Rubenstein loved New York City with all his heart, and worked tirelessly to better our city during some of its darkest hours. He will be missed.

My condolences to Amy, Steven, Richard, Roni, and the entire Rubenstein family.

New Yorkers are rightly concerned about the slow pace of the vaccine rollout so far. We will hold an oversight hearing on Tuesday, January 12 to determine if the city is doing everything in its power to safely and efficiently vaccinate New Yorkers as quickly as possible.

What happened today in the Capitol is a disgrace for our country and an affront to our democratic ideals.

My thoughts are with all those who were put in harms way by Donald Trump's reckless lies. The Biden-Harris Administration truly cannot come soon enough.

I was proud to pitch in at @Masbia this morning to help with food-packaging for Passover. Organizations like Masbia are on the front lines fighting the war on poverty, on hopelessness & despair, and the Council is proud to provide support to enable Masbia to do what they do best.

NYC needs 24/7 vaccinations AND 24/7 subway service. It's the right thing to do for essential workers, for public health, and for our city's recovery.

This is good news for now, but a delayed fare hike still means there could be one coming, and we can't have that—now or later. The MTA urgently needs federal support so the burden doesn't fall on those who rely on our public transit.

No matter what, New York City needs more vaccines, and I'm hopeful that the Biden Administration will increase the federal supply. We have the infrastructure and staff, we just need the doses now. We can't wait any longer. Lives are depending on it.

I'm thrilled that Polly Trottenberg is the Deputy Secretary nominee. She understands the urgency of congestion pricing, and as a dedicated public servant who made NYC a national leader in creating safer and more sustainable streets, I have the utmost confidence in her leadership.

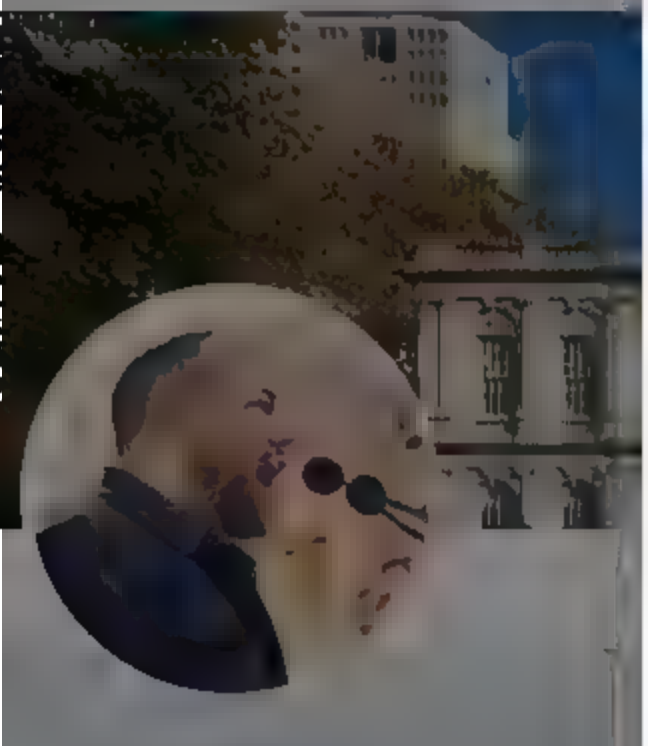
At both of our vaccination hearings, this Council warned that we are not doing enough to build trust & increase vaccination access in communities of color.

We need to see a concrete plan from the Mayor and the Health Dept. on how to fix these heartbreaking & infuriating numbers

Emma G. Fitzsimmons @emmagf



Here's our first look at NYC vaccine data: only about 11 percent of New Yorkers who received the vaccine are Black, 48 percent are white

Happy #ValentinesDay New York City! Let's show our love for each other by wearing a mask (double it up 😷) and adhering to social distancing guidelines. Hang in there. We have a ways to go but the better we follow guidelines the sooner we'll get to a more stable place.

It's a good start, but we still need full 24-hour service resumed. We pushed hard for this in a @NYCCouncil Committee on Transportation hearing last week, and while I'm glad to see some progress as a result, it's just not enough.

For decades, the City has relied on a piecemeal and ad-hoc approach. Muddling through its planning exercises one neighborhood, topic, or project at a time. That planning has largely neglected people of color, immigrants, people with disabilities, and low-income New Yorkers.

Our piecemeal planning process has also led to serious inefficiencies, which is particularly dangerous now that we are in a period of fiscal distress AND catastrophic for us as we make the difficult and critical decisions necessary to confront climate change.

As @NYCSpeakerCoJo @CoreyJohnsonNYC just mentioned - which neighborhoods have adequate hospitals and healthcare facilities is the result of the city's planning choices. We need comprehensive planning to have health justice and a just recovery from COVID-19. We need to #PlanforEquity

A much needed step in the right direction. We need more sequencing quickly to understand the scope of community spread, especially because these variants are more contagious and potentially more lethal. It's crucial that we know what we're dealing with.

So many New Yorkers have found themselves on food pantry lines in this new reality, and without food pantry workers, they would not be getting through these compounding crises.

Food pantry workers are essential. Their vaccine priority should reflect that.

The greatest city in the world shouldn't be home to the worst traffic. We need streets that work for people—streets that are safer for pedestrians and cyclists. We need more public transit accessibility.

We need to decrease the need for cars in NYC.

This is completely unacceptable anywhere, but I'm especially disheartened to see that NYC has become a hotspot for anti-Asian hate.

Ours is a city for all. New Yorkers stand in solidarity against hate towards our neighbors.

Citi Bike increased prices last week. See below ⬇️

This is not the direction we should be going in. We should be encouraging New Yorkers to use safe and sustainable public transportation options—not make them a luxury only some New Yorkers can afford.

Today I learned that I was exposed to COVID-19. I have tested negative for this virus. Per CDC guidance, I am quarantining. Fortunately, I have no symptoms and I'm feeling great. My full statement below.

Updated Statement from Speaker Corey Johnson

Updated to Reflect Negative COVID test result

New York, NY – "Today I learned that I was exposed to COVID-19. After speaking with medical professionals, I immediately got tested for COVID. This afternoon, the tests came back as negative. I have begun quarantining, per CDC guidance. Going forward, I will continue following CDC guidelines.

Fortunately, I have no symptoms and I'm feeling great. I already have received my first vaccine shot and am excited to get the second dose soon. I will continue my City Council work from home in the coming days.

Take care everyone – this is not over. Please continue to wear a mask, wash your hands and get vaccinated if you're eligible."

It's time to eradicate lead poisoning in NYC. That was the goal of Local Law 1 and while we've made tremendous progress since 2004, we haven't gotten there yet.

Intros 864 and 874 will bring us closer to that goal than ever before. Let's get them passed. 3/3

Women and especially women of color have seen disproportionate impact from this pandemic and the resulting economic crisis —and that's because they're already undervalued in "normal" times.

Our recovery is the perfect opportunity to change that.

Today we commemorate the 110th anniversary of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire and honor the victims, most of whom were immigrant women and girls.

Let this remind us that worker justice is gender, immigrant, and economic justice. #TriangleFire

31 years ago today, an arsonist killed 87 New Yorkers by starting a fire at Happy Land in the Bronx, the deadliest fire NYC had seen in almost 80 years.

Today, we remember that tragedy and honor those we lost.

The @NYCCouncil just voted to end qualified immunity for police officers, making NYC the first city in the country to do so.

Qualified immunity was established in 1967 in Mississippi to prevent Freedom Riders from holding public officials liable even when they broke the law. 1/

Excited to see that USDOT has finally given MTA the green light to start the process of implementing congestion pricing. Congestion pricing is a proven solution that will reduce congestion and emissions and the environmental assessment should be completed as quickly as possible.

> Dan Rivoli @danrivo
> An Environmental Assessment takes less time than a fuller Environmental Impact Statement, which means MTA can save time in implementing congestion pricing twitter.com/danrivoli/stat

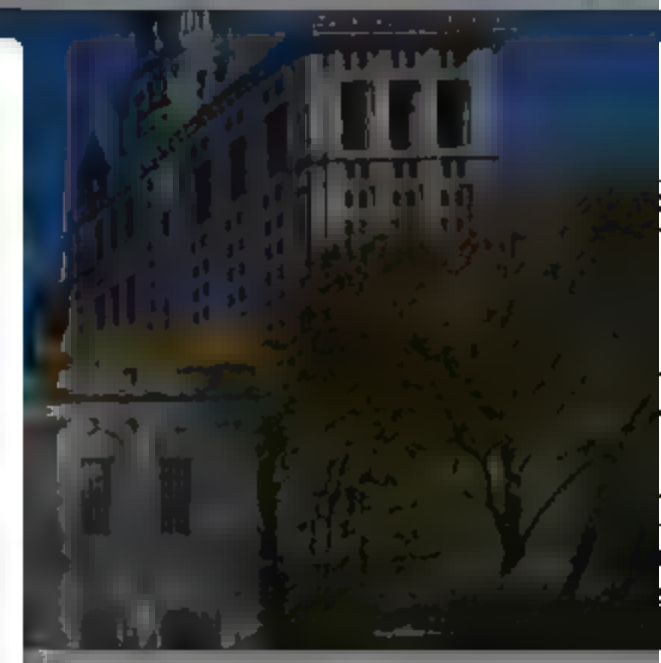
Finally, a huge step in the right direction to deliver justice. Marijuana legalization + the proactive empowerment of communities of color who've always been most harmed by criminalization is absolutely reason to celebrate.



Thank you @CPeoplesStokes and @LizKrueger!

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

My office is reaching out to the precinct and will do anything we can to be of assistance.

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

My office is reaching out to the precinct and will do anything we can to be of assistance.

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

My office is reaching out to the precinct and will do anything we can to be of assistance.

Small business owners' personal $ shouldn't be at risk for circumstances they can't control. I'm proud the @NYCCouncil just extended the ban on landlords from enforcing personal liability; it's the right thing to do and I hope other cities do the same.

Rooted in our nation's history of systemic racism, qualified immunity denied Freedom Riders justice and has been used to deny justice to victims of police abuse for decades.

It should never have been allowed, but I'm proud that we took action today to end it here in NYC. 2/2

This morning, we announced a historic investment to bring 100% Fair Student Funding for all NYC public schools starting in the 2021-22 school year.

The @NYCCouncil has advocated to fully fund our schools for years. I'm proud we've finally gotten here at this crucial time.

The guilty verdict in the trial of #DerekChauvin is a relief and a step in the right direction after too many cases where justice was not delivered. My heart is with the family of George Floyd. Nothing will alleviate their pain.

My full statement below:

> delivered. And while I am relieved, I'd be remiss not to acknowledge the immense trauma George Floyd's loved ones and the witnesses to his death endured throughout this trial. Nothing will ever alleviate their pain and suffering. My heart is with the Floyd family, his friends, his entire community, and all those who took the witness stand to deliver justice.
> Although this verdict is an important step in the right direction, we know that much work remains. The generations of trauma policing has done and continues to do to communities of color is nothing short of an epidemic and cannot continue. This Council has been committed to redefining public safety and policing and will continue to do the hard but necessary work that our communities need going forward."

Shelter security officers are essential, but those who work in shelters run by non-profits don't make what those in city-run facilities do.

They deserve livable wages + protection. That's why we're working to pass the Safety in Our Shelters Act. @kyle32bj

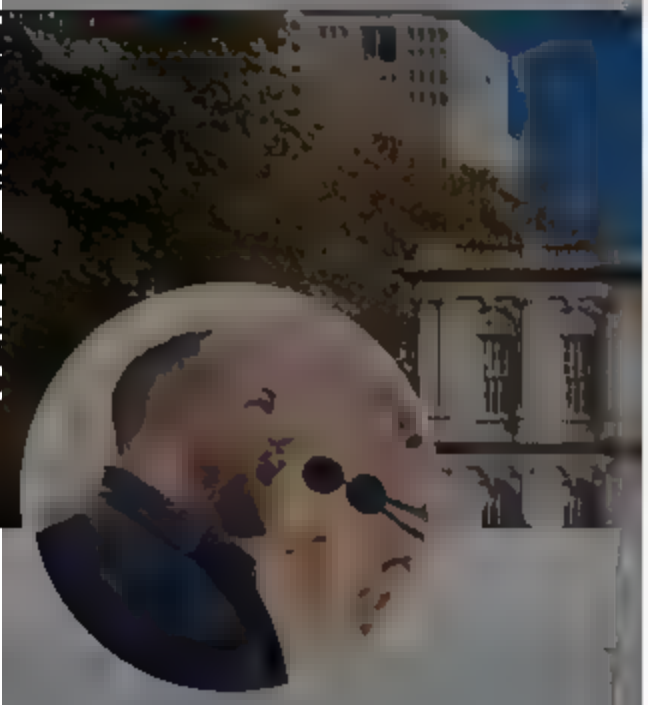
I believe Council Member Deutsch must resign. My full statement:



Statement from Speaker Corey Johnson on Council Member Chaim Deutsch

City Hall, NY – "When it comes to our jobs as elected officials, nothing is more important than the public trust. Council Member Chaim Deutsch betrayed that public trust by committing tax fraud. Our constituents rightly expect the people they vote for to uphold the law. Deutsch failed them. To protect the integrity of the City Council and his Brooklyn seat, he must resign. He can no longer serve his constituents in good faith."

This hurts. But if it wasn't for the work of NYC community-based orgs + the City's efforts in our Census count, we might have lost two.

NYC stepped up in the midst of a pandemic. The census matters, and government must do the work of getting everyone counted.

We will not be able to keep COVID cases down without as many New Yorkers as possible getting this vaccine.

We're so close. Please get the shot, and make sure everyone you know does the same.

We can't expect NYC students to go back to school like nothing happened this past year. They need and deserve support.

I'm grateful and proud to have worked with the Mayor and my Council colleagues to put forth this comprehensive mental health resource plan for our students:

The Council has concluded that the office of the 48th Council District has been vacated by operation of law. Mr. Chaim Deutsch confessed to a crime and violated his oath of office. He is no longer a member of the City Council.

My full statement below.

Statement from Council Speaker Corey Johnson on Chaim Deutsch

City Hall – "Based on our review of the charging document and Mr. Chaim Deutsch's plea agreement, the Council has concluded that the office of the 48th Council District has been vacated under the operation of law. Mr. Deutsch confessed to a crime and violated his oath of office. He is no longer a member of the City Council."

Background: Under New York State Public Officers Law §30(1)(e), a public office is deemed vacant if the holder is convicted of a crime involving a violation of his oath of office.

This Council has long been sounding the alarm on the need for mental health support in schools, and that urgency has only grown with the past year. I'm proud to have worked with @NYCMayor and @NYCSchools to make sure our students get the support they need.

It's not easy to come forward recounting events like the ones Jean Kim describes. Her allegations are serious and deserve to be treated as such. Further, she deserves to be treated with dignity and compassion by all of us.

The news of a driver crashing into an outdoor dining structure in Astoria last night is absolutely devastating & like all traffic violence, was entirely preventable. My heart goes out to the loved ones of the deliverista who was killed & I wish a quick recovery to all injured. 1/

This tragedy only highlights the importance of pedestrian-friendly, car-free spaces in our city, something I'm proud this Council has prioritized throughout this term but with even more urgency during this pandemic. But it's clear that we can't change the culture of NYC alone. 2/

If we want to make our streets safer for people, for everyone from delivery workers to groups of friends walking down the block, we need the Mayor's office to follow this Council's lead and make a much more proactive effort in reducing vehicular traffic on our streets, period. 3/

This #AAPIHeritageMonth comes on the heels of a devastating rise in anti-AAPI racism, rearing its ugly head in words and physical violence alike.

#AAPIHM is a celebration, but it's just as important to acknowledge what our AAPI communities experience, esp in the past year. 1/

Good. But let's also make sure renters don't owe thousands and thousands of dollars in back pay once the moratorium lifts.

"More than ever... New York needs this."

Couldn't agree more. We've long needed more pedestrian-friendly space, and this pandemic only made that more urgent. The Park Ave medians would be incredible to revitalize for better pedestrian use!

I wouldn't be where I am today without my teachers, and I know NYC students feel the same about the teachers that show up for them every day, pandemic or not, even when they're not receiving the support they need.

Our teachers deserve the world.
#TeacherAppreciationWeek2021

NYC Council @NYCCouncil

We trust, love, respect, and need teachers. Thank you for all that you do always, but especially in the face of crises and trauma.

You are the best of us, and you deserve the best.

The Council has concluded that the office of the 48th Council District has been vacated by operation of law. Mr. Chaim Deutsch confessed to a crime and violated his oath of office. He is no longer a member of the City Council.

My full statement below.

Statement from Council Speaker Corey Johnson on Chaim Deutsch

City Hall – "Based on our review of the charging document and Mr. Chaim Deutsch's plea agreement, the Council has concluded that the office of the 48th Council District has been vacated under the operation of law. Mr. Deutsch confessed to a crime and violated his oath of office. He is no longer a member of the City Council."

Background: Under New York State Public Officers Law §30(1)(e), a public office is deemed vacant if the holder is convicted of a crime involving a violation of his oath of office.

Like many private shelter security officers, Leonard Bell constantly has to choose between taking care of his health and putting food on the table.

This is inexcusable, pandemic or not. Leonard is right: we must pass the Safety in Our Shelters Act.

Horrible news in Times Sq: Two people—including a small child—were shot early this evening. They're in stable condition. There are multiple street closures, so please avoid the area.

I'm praying for the victims' full recovery. We must do everything we can to end gun violence.

The horrific slashing of MTA conductor Gerard Sykes is heartbreaking. My thoughts and prayers are with him and his loved ones right now, as well as his TWU family. Transit workers have been through so much during this pandemic.

Looks like we need common sense knife reform.

We could also use some intelligent, qualified leaders in city gov't. In a crisis it's just not enough to be a woke, parade dancing clown in office just to make people feel good about themselves. In a crisis you need real leaders

Shove your thoughts and prayers. The lawlessness above ground and below is on YOU and your "progressive" friends who despise our police and wish to do away with them. Go back to Boston, you hypocrite. STOP DESTROYING NYC

This is now our second #NationalNursesDay in this pandemic. We're in a very different place than we were last year, and we owe so much of that to our nurses who've continued to show up and care for us through it all.

Thank a nurse today. They really are heroes.

Wishing a happy #MothersDay to all, especially my wonderful mom, my best friend! I don't know where I'd be without her.

Sending love to everyone for whom this day is difficult, for any reason, whether it's always been or the hurt is new. I hope you find peace and comfort.

Our economy can't recover without mothers in the workforce, but we can't expect them to be able to work and be caretakers if our infrastructure doesn't support it.

New York City and the whole country needs the #MarshallPlanForMoms.

A heartwarming story about the essential support for some of the essential workers who've kept our city running in our darkest moments. We owe them all a debt of gratitude.

Grateful a suspect has been arrested in the Times Square shooting. This was a horrible crime that could have been much worse. Praying for a full recovery for all of the victims.

We need to make paid leave and child care universal so we can begin to address the inequities we still see in the workforce, most significantly impacting mothers.

The @NYCCouncil is proud to introduce legislation to help us get there.

This past year has been impossibly difficult, but one bright spot was seeing neighborhoods across New York embrace the idea that our streets belong to people. I'm proud of @NYCCouncil for pushing for #OpenStreetsNYC which today @NYCMayor signed into law

The first #Pride started as a response to police brutality. Today, peaceful protesters were pepper sprayed on the 51st anniversary of Stonewall. This is incredibly disturbing.

This bill from the state legislature will absolutely help with vaccine equity. Pharmacies are often the most accessible healthcare facilities in lower-income areas, due to physical location or trust. Pharmacists administering shots = we're all better off.

New Yorkers should be inspired by what we saw this legislative session and excited for what we can accomplish next session. I certainly am.

Session Statement By Speaker Corey Johnson

"Today marks the end of a historic legislative session, one that ushered in a new era in Albany made possible by our newly elected Democratic State Senate. What Speaker Heastie, Leader Stewart-Cousins, and Governor Cuomo accomplished this year is remarkable: the strongest rent protections for tenants in decades, the Green Light bill, the Climate and Community Protection Act, strengthening sexual harassment laws, and so much more. Of course, there is still more work to be done on issues like legalizing marijuana, automatic voter registration, legalizing surrogacy, halting solitary confinement, and more. But New Yorkers should be inspired by what we saw this session and excited for what we can accomplish

.@Emma4Change's speech at the #MarchForOurLives was 6 minutes and 20 seconds.

That's the amount of time it took for 17 of her classmates to be gunned down with an AR-15.

NO MORE AR-15's for civilians.

We need an assault weapon ban NOW.

I think it's ignorance. It's easy to hate what you don't understand.

Or they misunderstand it, thinking queerness is a "choice" to be deviant. The hateful don't like people who are different.

It's sad because we're all unique. The full spectrum of sexuality is beautiful.

At best this is an unnecessary inconvenience and at worst we are potentially shutting off service to unbanked New Yorkers. The MTA must reverse this position and allow cash payments at subway booths.

Thank you @CityAndStateNY for this recognition. I'm so proud to do what I do for the city I love. It's not lost on me how many LGBTQ folks came before me who didn't have the opportunity to do the same.

I'm a proud gay man and I'm so grateful to be here.

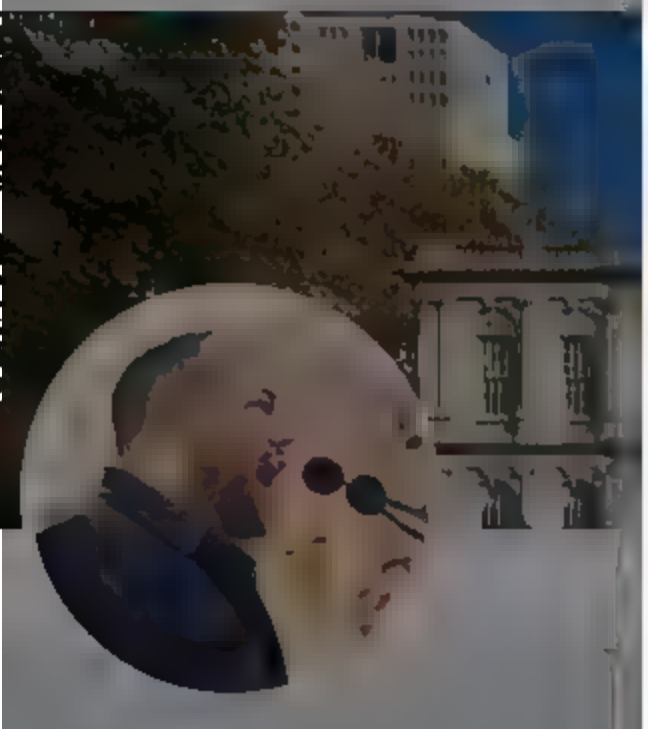
I'm proud to say that as of July 1, Hart Island was officially transferred to @NYCParks.

This took years of advocacy and eventually legislation from this Council to give dignity and respect to this final resting place for so many. I'm so grateful we got it done.

NYC Council Speaker Corey Johnson @NYCSpeakerCoJo



Last week, we took Hart Island back. A final resting place is not a jail, and we made that official when we voted to transfer the island so it is no longer under the Department of Corrections.

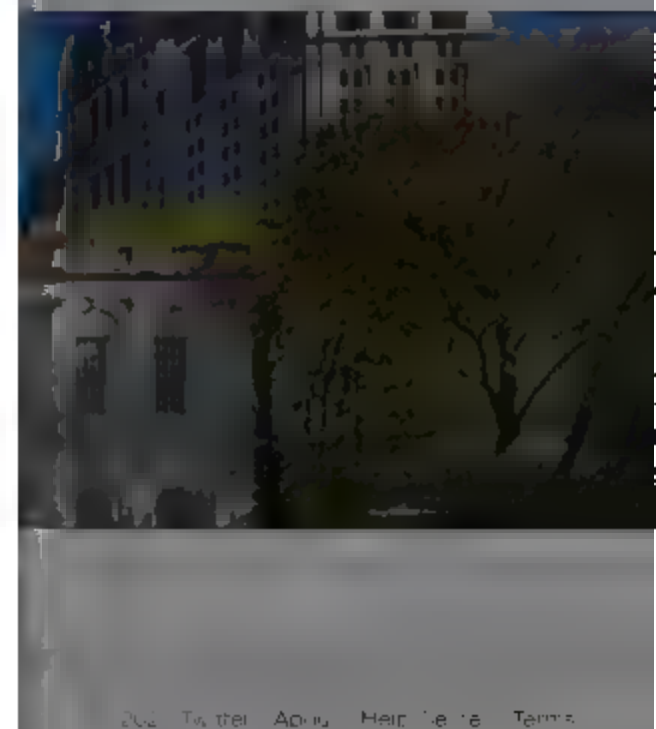
What we do now will determine how the rest of our recovery goes, and the most important thing we can do is get vaccinated to prevent the spread of the new COVID variant.



nychealthy @nycHealthy

Almost everyone can get #vaccinated , even if you have certain allergies or an underlying health condition. The only reason you may not be able to get a #COVID19 vaccine is if you have a severe allergy one of its ingredients or to another vaccine

Delivery workers deserve basic human dignity in doing their jobs, and that includes being paid a living wage, pandemic or not.

The @NYCCouncil is working on legislation to better protect these workers who kept our city running when everything shut down.

Good news: the #ExcludedWorkersFund is now open for applications!

Workers who were excluded from receiving unemployment benefits, including undocumented immigrants, are eligible to receive this aid.

Here's a comprehensive overview of how to apply:

So proud to have allocated $1M to @CUNYMSI! As one of only two research centers in the NE dedicated to Mexican + Mexican American studies, this institution is a cultural staple here in New York City. Here's to many more years of enrichment and education.

Today's settlement sends a clear message that illegal hotels will not be tolerated in our city and those who operate them will be punished. I'm proud that the Council voted to strengthen OSE to make this possible and protect affordable housing as a result.

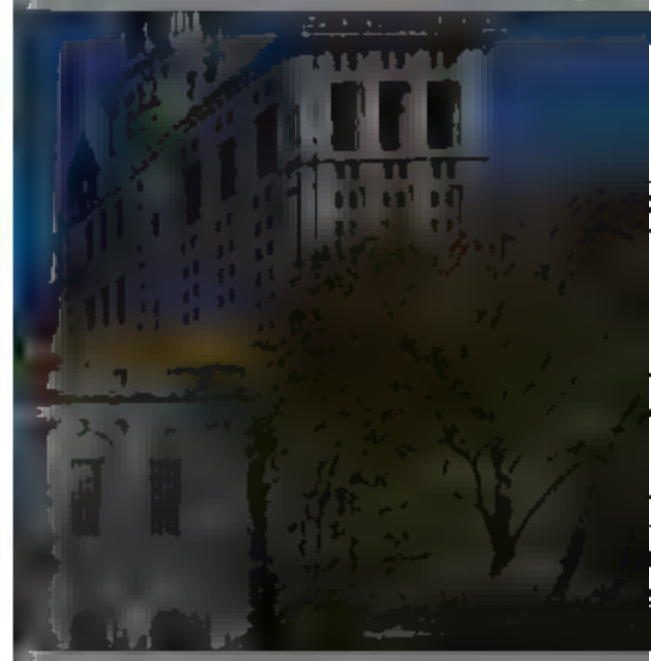
This is immoral.

A $238 million condo that will sit mostly empty.



That required dozens of middle-class rent-stabilized tenants to be evicted in order to erect this new building.

And whose owner will likely pay no NY income tax.

It's #WomensEqualityDay, marking the day in 1920 when some American women won the right to vote. We celebrate this historic moment with sights set on continued progress—and here in New York, we do so with our first woman governor now in office.

Restaurants were hurting even pre-COVID, no doubt in part due to third-party delivery services' predatory practices.

I'm proud of this Council's work to keep protecting our cherished small businesses by passing permanent fee caps once and for all.

Both @ConEdison's thus far inexplicable outage and the subway's resulting power surge are extremely concerning. An investigation can't come soon enough.

I'm keeping the victims of last night's storm and their loved ones in my prayers.

If it wasn't already clear, the climate crisis is fatal. There is no shortage of work to be done here, and there's little time left to do it.

Grateful that @GovKathyHochul + our state legislators extended NY's eviction moratorium. This gives the state more time to get emergency rental assistance $ to tenants and landlords who need it.

This pandemic isn't over. We must keep protecting New Yorkers from its consequences.

Almost everyone can get #vaccinated , even if you have certain allergies or an underlying health condition. The only reason you may not be able to get a #COVID19 vaccine is if you have a severe allergy one of its ingredients or to another vaccine

Bridges should be for people, and I'm so proud we're finally seeing progress with our new bike lanes on the Brooklyn Bridge! Now pedestrians and cyclists will have the space they need to travel more safely between Brooklyn and Manhattan.

Heartbroken to learn of the passing of my beloved friend Doris Diether. Her activism gave our community its legendary reputation for vibrant community engagement—and she did it all with love.

Keeping Greenwhich Village and all who loved her in my prayers. I'll miss her so much.

Many Council colleagues and I have been calling for the passage of #LessIsMoreNY for years to work in conjunction with reforms we've pushed on the local level. I'm grateful our state leaders are finally doing just that. Now let's implement it with urgency. 2/2

Beautiful night at @PublicTheaterNY
Honored to speak at their gala celebrating Merry Wives and honoring Joe Papp (would have been 100 this year!) and Vivian Jett Brown.

It's been a tough 18 months, especially for the performing arts. Suffice to say, it's good to be back.

For #DomesticViolenceAwarenessMonth I'm bumping up this thread of resources my team put together during the height of the pandemic, when cases were undoubtedly spiking but going underreported due to the unprecedented circumstances of COVID-19

Now & always, #BeingSafeCANTWait ⬇️

NYC Council Speaker Corey Johnson @NYCSpea

#BeingSafeCANTWait, so domestic violence service providers are still working to make sure many of their regular services are available. Shelters are also taking every precaution to keep survivors safe.

I'm so grateful to the essential workers in this space who never stopped showing up for survivors, even in the darkest moments of this pandemic. Your work truly saves lives.

If you or someone you know might need support, call 1-800-621-HOPE. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. #DVAM

Just like during the height of the AIDS epidemic, @godslovenyc has been a lifeline for New Yorkers during COVID. I'm grateful to see them expand operations into the West Village—especially given their history of service here.

We're thrilled to have them❤

NYC, please be careful this morning! Many roads are still blocked due to flooding and much of the subway is suspended. Do not travel this morning if you can avoid it.

Below is some info on how to report storm impacts to your home or neighborhood.

When I first came out I felt afraid, unsure of how people would react. I was lucky to be met with love & acceptance from my family & friends. We all should be.

Whether you've come out or aren't there yet: I hope you're met with love & celebration 🏳️‍🌈
Happy #NationalComingOutDay!

NYC, please be careful this morning! Many roads are still blocked due to flooding and much of the subway is suspended. Do not travel this morning if you can avoid it.

Below is some info on how to report storm impacts to your home or neighborhood.

You won't finish the 10th Ave bike lane, propel #CongestionPricing, and give more money to the bloated NYPD budget.

You're priorities are going to get us all killed

Parking violations must be taken seriously, but our investigation proves NYPD isn't doing that. Falsifying responses to parking complaints is dangerous and betrays the public trust.

Commissioner Shea needs to make sure this safety hazard isn't ignored.

Honored to speak at their gala celebrating Merry Wives and honoring Joe Papp (would have been 100 this year!) and Vivian Jett Brown.

It's been a tough 18 months, especially for the performing arts. Suffice to say, it's good to be back.

Heartbroken to learn of the passing of my beloved friend Doris Diether. Her activism gave our community its legendary reputation for vibrant community engagement—and she did it all with love.

Keeping Greenwich Village and all who loved her in my prayers. I'll miss her so much.

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

My office is reaching out to the precinct and will do anything we can to be of assistance.

This is absolutely vile. These attacks against Asian-American New Yorkers must end. Hate has no place here and we must always call it out when we see it.

My office is reaching out to the precinct and will do anything we can to be of assistance.

10 months into 2021, this is how long it takes Latinas to make what white non-Hispanic men made in 2020 💵 #LatinaEqualPayDay

Especially in our COVID recovery, after Latinas suffered disproportionate employment loss, we must end the systemic devaluing of Latinas and their work.

While the eligibility criteria was broadened, still businesses that received as little as 125k in each of the two PPP draws and kept their employees working as a result are not eligible for this program. That s a mistake

Yet thousands of us will have to do just that, forced to drive our vehicles and not stay safe in order to comply with Alternate Side Parking rule that was kept in place during the FLOOD Watch. Now that's inept governance

3 yrs after the #TreeofLife shooting, anti-Semitism continues to rear its ugly head—even here in NYC.

We remember the 11 lives taken 3 yrs ago & all victims of such acts of hate, and we stand in solidarity with our Jewish neighbors to fight anti-Semitism anywhere & everywhere.

My @NYCCouncil colleagues and I have asked for NYPD's records of their responses to 311 illegal parking complaints—but they have yet to provide them.

This week, we subpoenaed NYPD for the records. We will fulfill our oversight role regardless of NYPD's internal investigation

⬇️ twitter.com/StreetsblogNYC …

October 28, 202

Hon. Dermot F. Shea
Commissioner
New York City Police Department (NYPD)
One Police Plaza
New York, NY 10038

Dear Commissioner Shea,

Please be aware that this letter includes both a subpoena and requests for additional information.

Our Subpoena

As you know, on October 7, 2021, we sent you a letter summarizing the initial findings of an investigation by the Council's Oversight and Investigations Division into NYPD's handling of complaints about illegal parking, including complaints relating to improper parking permit use or placard abuse. That letter requested certain additional information about NYPD's response to particular 311 service requests ("SRs"). The bulk of that information was to be provided to us by October 20, 2021, with certain supplemental information to be provided by October 28, 202[illegible]

To date, the Department has not complied with this request. While we appreciate NYPD's commitment to have its Internal Affairs Bureau investigate this matter further and to impose appropriate discipline, this does not supplant our oversight role and our responsibility to examine the extent to which the Department's system for handling SRs is functioning or, as the case may be, malfunctioning.

This past election cycle was the first to incorporate the campaign finance changes we passed in the @NYCCouncil after our City's 2018 Charter revision.

The result? We just elected the most diverse Council in history—and that's something to be proud of.

My @NYCCouncil colleagues and I have asked for NYPD's records of their responses to 311 illegal parking complaints—but they have yet to provide them.

This week, we subpoenaed NYPD for the records. We will fulfill our oversight role regardless of NYPD's internal investigation ⬇️ twitter.com/StreetsblogNYC …

October 28, 202

Hon. Dermot F. Shea
Commissioner
New York City Police Department (NYPD)
One Police Plaza
New York, NY 10038

Dear Commissioner Shea,

Please be aware that this letter includes both a subpoena and requests for additional information.

Our Subpoena

As you know, on October 7, 2021, we sent you a letter summarizing the initial findings of an investigation by the Council's Oversight and Investigations Division into NYPD's handling of complaints about illegal parking, including complaints relating to improper parking permit use (i.e., placard abuse). That letter requested certain additional information about NYPD's response to particular 311 service requests ("SRs"). The bulk of that information was to be provided to us by October 20, 2021, with certain supplemental information to be provided by October 28, 202[illegible]

To date, the Department has not complied with this request. While we appreciate NYPD's commitment to have its Internal Affairs Bureau investigate this matter further and to impose appropriate discipline, this does not supplant our oversight role and our responsibility to examine the extent to which the Department's system for handling SRs is functioning or, as the case may be, malfunctioning.

BREAKING: The @NYCCouncil just voted to ban gas usage in new buildings, capping off our historic climate forward agenda for NYC. #GasFreeNYC

I'm so proud of our work this term confronting crises with sound action & I look forward to the next Council picking up where we left off.

Herb Sturz spent decades serving marginalized New Yorkers with compassion, including his vital role in the efforts to close Rikers.

I'm grateful to live in Herb Sturz's New York. He was a constant inspiration and I'll miss him deeply. What an honor to celebrate his life today.

It's been quite the ride, @NYCCouncil.

I'm honored to have served as your Speaker, proud of all that we've accomplished together, and forever grateful to have worked alongside such incredible colleagues.

Thank you, New York City. My full remarks from our final Stated together:

Good news for Chelsea.

After many years of advocacy by community members, my office, my predecessor's office & my colleagues in government, the sidewalk shed at 210 Seventh Avenue - a longtime quality of life and public safety issue for our community - is finally coming down.

what does this say that it took many years and attention by at least two Council Speakers to take down just a simple sidewalk shed?
